JAMES BARBOUR, Jr., left on the East-bound train last night for Charlottesville, Va., where he will enter the University of Virginia for the summer term in the Law School. That Jim is popular was shown by the large number of friends who gathered at the depot to bid him good-bye. They brought the colored orchestra with them, which rendered appropriate music. The tunes which affected the young gentleman most perceptibly were "Down on the Farm," "The Girl I Left Behind Me" and "Wait 'till the Bulldog Dies." Finally the train pulled out, three cheers for Barbour were given and the band played "It's All Over Now."

KENTUCKY WEATHER REPORT.

What We May Expect Between This Time and To-morrow Evening.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR; Blue—RAIN or SNOW; If Black above—WILL WARMER grow; If Black below—COLDER will be; Unless Black's shown—no change we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 6 o'clock to-morrow evening.

Johnny had a pound of powder and a big supply of rockets; He had filled his panty pockets; And he had a celebration; Which he thought was awful funny; But in the twilight on a durtpan They gathered up the wreck of Johnny.

BROWNING & Co. have a new ad. in this impression of THE LEDGER.

The regular monthly meeting of City Council will be held to-morrow evening.

CORONER WILSON of Covington will begin his inquests into the bridge disaster to-day.

DON't forget the genuine slaughter in prices on summer footwear at Miner's Shoe Store.

MAJOR TILLMAN, late Cashier of the Falls City Bank, Louisville, has mortgaged property to settle with his creditors and he will soon be free.

The Republicans of the Third District have called a convention to meet at Franklin August 11th, to nominate a candidate for Congress.

SECRETARY ED A. TUPPINS says there is no likelihood of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association building a new track at Lexington.

ELDER W. W. HALL, Rev. F. M. Tindler, James Cochran and Miss Lizzie Sudth have gone to New York to attend the Christian Endeavor meeting.

The Washington City Fuel Gas plant has experienced a regular boom. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harris have added a son to the list of fortunate stockholders.

The Mayor of Lexington has issued orders closing two Main street saloons, because citizens signed a petition requesting Council to refuse them license.

REMEMBER, THE LEDGER prints "Help Wanted," "Lost," "Found," and similar notices not of a business character, free of charge. The only thing we require is that the copy be sent in before 9 o'clock on day of publication.

THERE'S no flies on Dan Shafer. Last evening he was at Commerce street on an Eastbound electric car when John Paul accosted him with a volley of epithets that would have paralyzed a bootblack. Dan stood like a little man until Paul made a grab at him, when he jumped off the car, literally mauled hell out of him, and hopped on and resumed his trip just as though nothing had happened. John Paul will be mighty apt to let Daniel alone in future.

JAMES FROST met with a painful accident on the night of the Fourth on Wall street. He had been driving an old roadster with a large toy cannon, preparatory to firing a few shots, and thought he had extracted all of the powder. So sure was he that he dropped a lighted match into the muzzle. There was enough to burn his face and hands very severely. His eyes made a narrow escape. The lashes and brows were singed off and the lids burned, but luckily the sight was not impaired in the least.

THE latest fad in the line of collecting is the collecting of colored posters—the bills with which the enterprising poster adorns boards and fences and dead walls about town. In France and in several of the German cities this new mania has taken a deep hold and is spreading rapidly. But the Maysville merchant just now finds it more practical and profitable to collect bills of another sort—the U. O. M.'s that have grown old enough to shave.

MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, JULY 6, 1892.

ONE CENT.

It is said that the Latonia Association cleared $47,000 on its recent meeting.

ABOUT everything that could float was converted into an excursion boat at Cincinnati on the Fourth.

A JURY has been selected to condemn lands on both sides of the Big Sandy for the proposed Government locks and dams.

THE merchants and property-owners of Louisville are making a strong protest against the advance of insurance rates in that city.

EDWARD FISHERBACK, agent of the Cincinnati Southern Railroad at Burgin, this state, has skipped out, short in his accounts. He left the right of way and the steel rails that were spiked to it, also a large family.

THE picnic given by the P. O. S. A. at the Fair Grounds on the Fourth was a success, despite the fact that some despicable cuss made a "ground" on the trolley wire and prevented the street cars from running for an hour or so just after dinner.

THE Charleston, Cincinnati and Chicago Railway project is again in the saddle. It comes to the front as often as the Columbus and Maysville scheme and there's just about as much prospect for one as for the other this side of the millennium.

JAMES FETTERS has bought suit in the Greenup Circuit Court against Frederick Victor, his neighbor, for $10,000 damages. Both are married and have families, and the charge is that Victor has been "deadening over the line" into the Fetters household.

CHARLES B. RYAN, one of the most efficient and obliging of railroad officials, has been promoted to Assistant General Passenger Agent of the Chesapeake and Ohio, with headquarters in Cincinnati. Mr. Ryan is a Maysville man of whom the city may well be proud.

THEY'RE married now sure. In 1890 Isaac N. Moran and Madeline E. Larsen were married by a "Squire" in Chicago. The "Squire" died before certifying the marriage to the Clerk's office. Doubt having arisen as to the legality of the act, the couple procured a license in Newport and were remarried.

THE confectionery privilege at the Rugles Camp-meeting was awarded to Sam Wood and Harry Walsh. Mr. Wood is in Ashland, and is in the confectionery business there. These gentlemen promise to furnish the best of ice cream and everything else in their line. The firm will be Wood & Walsh.

IN its issue of Sunday, July 3d, THE Ashland News just learns of a fight that took place on Front avenue between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets "on last Saturday week." You see these two and three syllable streets of Ashland are so far out in the country that it takes a long while to hear from them.

SAMUEL B. CRAIG has resigned his position as Clerk of the United States Court at Louisville at the suggestion of District Judge John Barr. Captain Thomas Speed, nephew of James Speed, Lincoln's personal friend and Attorney-General, will have the place. Craig has held the place for twenty years and has been very efficient. He has been ill for some time past.

GEORGE BLACK shot and killed John Stacey while the latter was dancing at a picnic on Indian Run, near Petersville. Stacey leaves a wife and three children. Black is single. The men were rivals several years ago, and Stacey being successful Black has had a grudge against him ever since, which culminated in the tragedy.

THE most expensive municipal hall in the world and the largest in the United States is the city building of Philadelphia, upon whose yet unfinished tower the largest clock in the world is to be displayed. The aggregate cost up to this time has been about $19,000,000—fully $6,000,000 more than the cost of the Capitol at Washington.

JUST in midsummer we offer our entire line of Ladies' fine summer Footwear at about one-half price. We are determined not to carry over a single pair of them.

JAMES R. FORD, one of the oldest members of Maysville Commandery, K. T., died at his home in Catlettsburg Sunday night, aged about 70. The funeral took place yesterday morning. Owing in the intervention of the Fourth of July and the general suspension of business, it was impossible to communicate with the members here in time for any of them to attend.

THE Single Tax Club of Chicago will request the World's Fair officials to mark foreign exhibits of dutiable goods with the selling price in the country from which the goods are exported, the transportation charges to Chicago, and the selling price in Chicago, in order that visitors may find out who pays the duty under our present system of Tariff taxation.

MANY relatives and friends in this city and county will regret to learn of the death of Bayless Mitchell, son of Stanislaus Mitchell, which occurred at his father's residence in Benton, Mo., on the 30th ult. For some years he had suffered from Bright's disease, and had gone to Colorado in hopes of obtaining relief. He returned home in hopeful spirits just seven weeks previous to his death.

THE latest fad in the line of collecting is the collecting of colored posters—the bills with which the enterprising poster adorns boards and fences and dead walls about town. In France and in several of the German cities this new mania has taken a deep hold and is spreading rapidly. But the Maysville merchant just now finds it more practical and profitable to collect bills of another sort—the U. O. M.'s that have grown old enough to shave.

SHE'S LAID TO REST.

The Final Scenes Over the Remains of Miss Emma Brennan Wood.

The funeral of Miss Emma Brennan Wood, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. James Wood, whose sad death was fully reported in Saturday's LEDGER, took place from the residence of the bereaved parents on Forest avenue Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

Services were conducted by the Rev. B. W. Mabane, Pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, assisted by the Rev. W. T. Spears of Washington.

There was a large attendance of relatives and friends of the family and a notable number of the companions and co-workers of the earnest little Christian Endeavorer, and the floral tributes were profuse and appropriate. One of these, an anchor from the Endeavor Society of the Christian Church, bore a card with this tribute from the pen of G. S. Judd, Esq.:

IN LOVING MEMORY OF EMMA WOOD. A moment with companions standing, A mistle and she made the landing, Safe in the heavenly port. A mistle into heaven's portal? A stepping into life immortal, Safe in the heavenly port. She crossed the river death, appalling, She heard familiar voices, calling, Out of the heavenly port. She joined the band of heaven's Endeavor, That anchors souls in love forever, Safe in the heavenly port.

At the conclusion of the impressive services the casket was borne away by Messrs. C. O. McDougle, L. M. Cox, Walter Wormald and Thomas Darnall, and the remains were deposited in the family lot in the Maysville Cemetery.

In a poll of 4,000 votes at Augusta, Ga., Prohibition was defeated by a majority of 1,400.

THE C. and O. depot restaurant will be opened one day this week. It will be run by the Southern News Company.

J. H. RAINS & SON received the first load of new wheat this morning. It was grown on Messrs. Barbour and Cochran's land.

THE Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service has directed that crews of steamboats on the Ohio be vaccinated or revaccinated.

THE House has agreed to the conference report on the agricultural bill. This is the first general appropriation bill that has finally passed.

THE ordinance taxing the sale of foreign beer in that city $500 a year was passed for the second time by the Covington Board of Aldermen.

THE ladies of the Presbyterian Church of Maysville will give an ice cream supper at Oddfellows' Hall Thursday evening, July 7th. All are invited.

It is said that Governor Brown has pardoned the Nicholasville Fair Company, which was indicted in February for allowing gaming on its grounds last August.

THE total sugar bounty paid during the fiscal year ended June 30th, 1892, was $7,330,043, of which $7,065,285 was paid on cane sugar. Of the total bounty on cane sugar $6,870,596 was paid to planters in Louisiana.

THE Servians have a curious custom of giving a parting kiss to their deceased friends before final burial, and the observance of it has caused a serious epidemic of diphtheria. The custom has now been forbidden.

MRS. KATE H. REID, widow of the late Colonel John Reid of Lexington, Mo., has purchased an elegant place in Lexington, Ky., where she will make her home hereafter. Colonel and Mrs. Reid formerly lived in Maysville.

At a meeting of Friendship Lodge No. 43, D. of R., Monday evening, the following officers were installed by D. D. G. M. Albert N. Huff:

N. G.—Mrs. Maggie Powell.

Secretary—Mrs. Lizzie Huff.
Treasurer—Miss Lou Powling.
Warden—Mrs. Emma Luman.
Conductor—Mrs. Fannie Ort.
I. G.—W. C. Pelham.
O. G.—Mrs. Kate Bierley.
R. S. N. G.—John T. Martin.
R. S. N. G.—Mrs. Angeline Bromley.
R. S. V. G.—Miss Theodora Rudy.
R. S. V. G.—Miss Lottie Sproenberg.
Chaplain—Miss Maggie Ort.

THE Maysville Cyclists will spin out for Lexington Sunday and Monday to attend the state meet. Among those who will go are W. P. Jenkins, William Trouts, James T. Kackley, Charles I. Rosenau, Thomas M. Russell, Buckner Wall, James Egnew and L. M. McCarty.

W. S. MELTON, who has been confined in jail here for five months and twelve days because of a $500 fine imposed for selling lottery tickets in this city, has had the remainder of his fine remitted by the Governor. The official documents were brought down by Senator Wall Saturday night and Mr. Melton was at once liberated.

MICHAEL MURPHY, an old and respected citizen of Maysville, died at his home on East Second street yesterday morning after an illness of only four days. Deceased was born in the county Wexford, Ireland, and was 69 years of age. His wife survives him. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at St. Patrick's Church. Burial at Washington.

In deference to a mere sentiment, the sale of beer was forbidden on the Fair Grounds on the Fourth, and yet there was more complaint about drunken men on and around the grounds than ever occurred during a fair where beer could be had for a nickel and the asking. Whenever you forbid beer, the boys are sure to take at least a pint of whisky in their pocket.

THE Kentucky Union Railroad has been completed to Jackson, Breathitt county.

BOX RENTS are now due at the Post-office, and patrons are respectfully requested to pay promptly.

ACCORDING to THE World Rev. J. E. Wright of this city is conducting a protracted meeting at Sharpshurg.

THE pile-driver was brought into requisition and the Cincinnati land-slide has been "pinned down"—temporarily at least.

THE M. E. Church, South, will have no preaching during the month of July. Sunday-school and prayer-meeting as usual.

AN infernal machine, which failed to explode, was sent through the mails to Miss Mary A. Taylor of Memphis. Charles Fink, a discarded lover, has been arrested.

RAY HOOVER is the name of the gallant fellow who jumped into the river at Manchester and made a noble effort to rescue Miss Emma Brennan Wood of this city from drowning.

PROF. J. W. HALL was unanimously re-elected Superintendent of Public Schools at Covington, the name of Prof. C. J. Hall, formerly of this city, not being presented.

THE stove foundry meeting didn't meet as per adjournment Saturday afternoon. Judge Plister was the only progressive citizen who materialized at the appointed hour, and he adjourned sine die.

THE receipts of the Maysville and Mason County Building and Savings Association, Saturday night last, were $4,997.95. How does this strike some of the Cincinnati associations that blow so much about their receipts?

LULA, the two-year-old daughter of H. C. Dieterich, Jr., and wife, is dead after an illness of four weeks. The funeral will occur at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the family residence in the Sixth Ward. Elder C. S. Lucas will conduct the services.

THE trial at Louisville of J. E. Kent for forging the names of several prominent men develops the fact that the People's Benefit Fraternity, which Kent represented, is a "wildcat" affair. The State Insurance Commissioner in implicated in Kent's testimony.

THE Father Mathew Total Abstinence Society elected the following officers last Sunday to serve for the ensuing six months:

President—John O'Mahony.

Sergeant-at-Arms—John Gill.
Color Sergeant—James Richmond.
Sentinel—William Shea.
Grand Marshal—M. R. Gilmore.
Supervisors—F. Breen, W. A. Cole and Robert Brown.

SOME of our citizens may learn, after they have been seriously inconvenienced a few times by the non-delivery of letters, that the postage on drop letters is two cents. There are those who persist in putting on only one cent stamps, and the letters are held at the Postoffice until the deficient postage is paid.

IT'S mighty hard to get ahead of young people when they make up their minds to marry. A few nights ago a couple of young ladies (?) eloped to Covington, and in climbing over a fence to get into a carriage the discovery was made that one of them had on pants and patent leather boots. They got married.

ONCE more it is deemed necessary to state that letter-carriers do not deliver mail belonging to boxholders, nor do the carriers deliver mail belonging to persons who live outside of the city. The Free Delivery system was secured for the benefit of the people of Maysville, and if you want it you must move into town.

At the last meeting of the Neptune Fire Company the following officers were elected for the ensuing six months:

President—John A. Mitchell.

At Newport on the Fourth a five-year-old child was literally shocked to death by the firing of a cannon in front of the house where she lay sick. And this after the cannoniers had been requested to remove the gun from its position. They should be convicted of murder and punished accordingly.

IN response to numerous requests, THE LEDGER states that the invited guests at Mr. and Mrs. William Bell's five-o'clock tea at Cracker's Neck were Dr. and Mrs. H. K. Adamson, Major and Mrs. E. F. Browning, Colonel and Mrs. John C. Adamson all of this city, and Mrs. C. M. Brooks of Nebraska.

ALL things considered, there was comparatively little red liquor finished Monday, but THE PUBLIC LEDGER man encountered a fellow on Market street that night who thought he owned the world. Next morning no doubt he felt like he owned nothing and owed the back taxes on all he thought he owned Monday night.

THE Millersburg Baseball Club came down to Maysville on the Fourth to play our boys a game of ball. They met at the Fair Grounds and the game was started but did not proceed far until it broke up in a row. Ben Cox, one of the Maysville players, and one of the Millersburg boys by the name of McIntyre got into a dispute about a slide made to third base. The discussion became warm and a brother of McIntyre's rushed in to do Cox. He flung Charley Dawson out of the way with the remark that he would punch him if he did not stand back. Dawson hit McIntyre over the head with a stick making a severe cut. This ended the fight and the game. The parties will be tried before Judge Grant Saturday.

ANDREW McDANIEL died in Carlisle, aged 79 years.

THE Price House at Catlettsburg closed its doors on the 1st of July.

C. S. LYNE has been appointed Postmaster at Brannon, Jessamine county.

W. W. CULBERTSON of Ashland owns ten shares of stock in the Second National Bank of Ironton.

GEORGE W. HUDSON of Murphysville was in the city Saturday and got $180 cash on pension account.

THE LEDGER is not the only thing in Maysville that has a new "head" on this morning, but we doubt if the others are as small or look as handsome.

THE LEDGER's mighty sorry, but one of its good friends and liberal patrons was just a day late with his copy for a big Fourth-of-July advertisement.

MR. AND MRS. L. M. MILLA, returned from their bridal trip, have taken up their residence in the house belonging to Mrs. Charles S. Miner, Second and Lower streets.

ANDERSON W. JONES, City Physician of Lexington, and his twin brother Bowen, got on a toot and beat a pretty mulatto girl with a pistol. Their trial is set for to-day.

JAMES MOORE has been adjudged insane at Covington. When questioned as to the cause, he promptly attributed it to drinking whisky and reading THE Kentucky Post. He's excusable.

ROUND trip tickets Maysville to New York $15, to Old Point Comfort $13, to Washington City $12, via Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. Tickets on sale July 5th, 6th and 7th, limited to forty days.

GEORGE SHIELDS was heavily fined at Wabash, Ind., for desecrating his wife's grave. Mrs. Shields's parents had placed flowers and ornaments on the grave and he threw them over the cemetery fence.

THE Carnegie iron and steel firms have been consolidated under the name of "The Carnegie Steel Company, Limited," with the general offices in Pittsburgh. The capital is $25,000,000, and 40,000 hands will be employed.

At Lexington a hot air balloon in which Frank Delvey was making an ascension collapsed 300 feet from the ground. Delvey saved his life by jumping when near the ground. He was painfully injured, however.

JUDGE WARREN MONTFORT of the Franklin Circuit Court heard arguments by plaintiff and defendants in the demurrer to the many suits brought by the state against the railroads claiming exemption from taxation under an act of 1884. The case was taken under advisement.

THE will of the late D. D. Bell has been admitted to probate at Lexington. He leaves $100,000 to his wife, $25,000 to the children of Daniel M. Bell and the same amount to the children of Noah Bell and to Earnest and Henry Bell. The balance of the estate goes to his daughter, Clara Bell, to be held in trust for her until she is twenty-one years old.

At Rugles Camp-Ground.

The privileges were let to the following persons: Hotel, Hamrick; confectionery, Wood & Walsh; baggage and barber-shop, Mr. Plummer; stable, Mr. Bryant. There is every indication for a good meeting. The grounds are beautiful. The meeting will begin July 28th, ending August 8th.

Good Advice to Farmers.

In directing the attention of our farmer friends to the notice from the grain merchants and millers of Maysville, printed elsewhere in THE LEDGER, the following remarks from a Maryland newspaper are not out of place:
